So bad, In fact, that you need to be

- afraid to even defend her from their overreach,
- unwilling to criticize those attacking her,
- urgently distancing yourself from her, her beliefs, and her actions,
- cowed into general silence, and
- intimidated into NEVER considering violence, force, or resistance against the abuse of government power again!

Skills that make me a nightmare for N like you. If you let my country go now, that will be the end of it. I will not look for you, I will not pu you. But if you don't, I will look for you, I will find you and I will invade your safe space."

Yeah the videos show water all over the floor and people comment about it. They say her blood was washed away and they de-escalate the situation by letting people in afterward. Most people there were not aware anyone was shot or killed. Many rumors of someone being shot was known 2 to 3 hours later. It was a smart move to let them in. Had people known someone unarmed, female and veteran was shot and killed- would have resulted in chaos.

She was a Christian. Although she is gone from this world, she will live forever, and because of the way she was taken before her time, God will have his vengeance. If you think he will forget, God is forever, you cannot outlast him. None will escape Judgment, all will be Judged. I find comfort in knowing that the next thing she will know will be a place so perfect, it is beyond human comprehension. Jesus is coming, and he is coming soon. It is hard for thee to kick against the pricks.

The Asians who weren't subjected to the ideologically subversive American schools and who don't live in a left wing bubble are some of the most based people in the US because they grew up with the specter of communism in their back yard or had to deal with the collateral damage of a proxy war over communism.

Only the Cubans and Venezuelans are more based as a group.
